

TITLE OF INVENTION:
UNIT NAME: ServerAlert

APPLICANTS:

James Scott McClure US citizen, Florida resident,
Jeannie Marie Frohring US citizen, Florida resident

INVENTION SPECIFICATION:

This invention we claim is designed to direct the attention of a restaurant server towards their customers. The unit would be made of clear or colored transparent plastic. The unit would be hinged at the top to allow it to open into an angle suited for stability on top of a table. When the unit is collapsed it would allow other units to stack on top for easy storage (all dimensions are represented on attached drawings). The alert button would be at the front of the unit along with an optional restaurant logo/name. When the alert button is pushed the unit will illuminate and flash for a server's attention.

BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION:

Not applicable

BRIEF SUMMARY OF INVENTION:

The general idea of the invention is to improve restaurant customer/server relations. The advantages of this unit are: collapsible base, easy storage, and simplicity of use.
